

Ju Raku En

寿楽園

トゥーンバ日本庭園
Toowoomba's Japanese Garden

One of Australia's largest and most traditionally designed Japanese stroll gardens.

Experience the combination of ancient and medieval Japanese garden art forms.

Proudly supported by the University of Southern Queensland and the Toowoomba Regional Council

Located on the beautiful Darling Downs in Australia's Garden City, Toowoomba

Ju Raku En 寿楽園

トウーンバ日本庭園
Toowoomba's Japanese Garden

(Ju - longevity, Raku - to enjoy, En - a place for public recreation)
1.25 kilometres of stroll path in 3 hectares of Japanese landscape as part of the Campus of the University of Southern Queensland (USQ).

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN QUEENSLAND

Open: Daily 7am to Dusk Admission: Free

General enquiries, wedding bookings, guided tours or other functions please contact:
The University of Southern Queensland, West Street, Toowoomba, Qld, Australia 4350
Ph: 07 4631 2627 Fax 07 4631 2729 Email: gardens@usq.edu.au Website: www.usq.edu.au

Note: The garden is wheelchair accessible from all entries; however, wheelchair access to the pavilion is not available.

日本庭園「寿楽園」へようこそ! (南クィーンズランド大学)

